

① It's a story (film or ~~the~~ short series) a semi biographic about the friendship of 3 young immigrant girls who all move to London around the same time, for different reasons, w/ completely different stories and they come together.

② I think writing is probably the most exciting (if I did it now I'd love to act in it) but 10/15 years from now I'd be too old.

③ (I hope too) My previous work has also been on a similar vein. ~~important~~ Realistic female led stories that explore the ~~the~~ nuances of female relationships.

④ ~~It is to support~~ Supporting the younger artists/creatives. Allow them to have a safe space to grow & create. And where they can learn from experienced people already in the industry.

⑤ I would love to do something more comedic, in whatever form it is.
like a road trip comedy vibes.
Because they're iconic.
